

OPENING DAY

December 15, 2001

LENGTH OF LINE

2.5 miles

- Runs along 400 South between the Gallivan Plaza Station in downtown Salt Lake City and Rice-Eccles Stadium at the University of Utah.

HOURS OF OPERATION

Monday through Saturday: 5:30 a.m. - 11:30 p.m.
Sunday and Holidays: 10:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.

NUMBER OF VEHICLES

Ten (10)

NUMBER OF STATIONS

Four (7)

- Parking is available at the University of Utah's Rice-Eccles Station and in LDS Institute Parking Garage at the Fort Douglas Station.
- Riders transferring between the Sandy/Salt Lake Line switch trains at the Gallivan Plaza station in downtown Salt Lake.

Station Locations

Library – 225 E. 400 South
Trolley – 625 E. 400 South
900 East – 875 E. 400 South
Stadium – 1355 E. 500 South
University South Campus – 1790 S. Campus Drive
Fort Douglas – 200 S. Wasatch Drive
University Medical Center – 10 N. Medical Drive

CONSTRUCTION COST

$118.5 million

FUNDING

80% / 20% match

The Federal Government provided 80 percent of the construction cost, with local match dollars providing the remaining 20 percent.

ACCESSIBILITY

All TRAX University Line stations and vehicles are accessible to persons with disabilities.

RIDERSHIP

Approximately 15,300 weekday boardings during the school year. Current ridership is more than double initial projections.